Dated: 8th December 2008

To,

All NBE accredited hospitals /Medical colleges –
DNB Super Specialty Programme

Sub: Regarding Admission to DNB Super Specialty Courses

Sir /Madam,

Your kind attention is invited to the admission to DNB Super Specialty for Admission Session – January 2009. As it has been informed earlier that the admission to the above programme shall be on the basis of a Centralized Entrance Test.

The Information Bulletin-cum-Application Form for the DNB CET (Super Specialty) was announced in November 2008 and the applications of candidates for the exam have been received by National Board of Examinations.

A copy of the Information Bulletin containing the details of the examination, admission process, important dates, rules, declaration of results, validity of CET etc. is available on the website www.natboard.edu.in. All concerned are required to kindly download a copy of the same and strictly adhere to the admission scheme prescribed therein.

The candidates of DNB CET (Super Specialty) will be provided with a mark sheet depicting marks obtained out of 100 in DNB CET (Super Specialty). The hospitals /medical colleges /institutions admitting candidates for DNB Super Specialty courses are required to conduct an institutional assessment as prescribed in Information Bulletin and select candidates on the basis of combined performance of candidate in CET and Institutional Assessment.

For clarifications, if any, kindly contact National Board of Examinations at Fax: 45593009 and e-mail: mail@natboard.edu.in

Yours sincerely

Dr. A.K. Sood
Executive Director
