

National Board of Examinations

Question Paper Name : DNB General Surgery Paper3

Is this Group for Examiner? : No

Enable Mark as Answered Mark for Review and Clear Response : Yes

Question Number : 1 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

A 50-year-old male, known case of NIDDM and with BMI of 31 Kg/m² complains of calf pain after walking for approx. 1 km. Discuss the evaluation and management of this patient. [5+5]

Question Number : 2 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Embryology, clinical features and management of Cystic Hygroma. [1+2+2]
- b) Risk factors of, and prophylaxis for Venous Thromboembolism. [2+3]

Question Number : 3 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Dry Gangrene. [5]
- b) Therapeutic Embolization. [5]

Question Number : 4 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Clinical features and management of intraperitoneal abscess. [1+4]
- b) Pathophysiology of gallstone disease. [5]

Question Number : 5 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Describe management of a patient with corrosive esophageal injury. [5]
- b) Discuss management of Achalasia Cardia. [5]

Question Number : 6 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) National Tuberculosis Elimination Programme. [5]
- b) Pseudomyxoma peritonei. [5]

Question Number : 7 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

Describe the surgical anatomy of the stomach and discuss the clinical features, evaluation and management of a case of bleeding duodenal ulcer. [2+2+2+4]

Question Number : 8 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Describe clinical features and treatment of ascending cholangitis. [2+3]
- b) Discuss role of transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic stent shunts (TIPSS) in emergency management of variceal hemorrhage. [5]

Question Number : 9 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

Enumerate the causes and describe the clinical features, diagnosis and treatment of acute mechanical intestinal obstruction. [2+2+2+4]

Question Number : 10 Question Type : SUBJECTIVE

- a) Pilonidal sinus. [5]
- b) Rectal Evacuation Disorder (RED). [5]