

National Board of Examinations

DNB Emergency Medicine Paper1

Question Number : 1

- a) Write all clinical criteria to diagnose anaphylaxis. [5]
- b) Write clinical picture of anaphylactic shock. [2]
- c) Treatment in case of acute anaphylaxis reaction. [3]

Question Number : 2

- a) Describe anatomy of larynx as relevant for endotracheal intubation. Draw appropriate diagram(s). [3+2]
- b) Describe the differences in laryngeal anatomy in adults and paediatric patients. [5]

Question Number : 3

- a) Describe the drugs used in individual hypertensive emergencies. [5]
- b) Describe advantages and disadvantages of drugs used in hypertensive emergencies. [5]

Question Number : 4

- a) Describe various oxygen delivery devices used in the Emergency department. [7]
- b) Describe oxygen toxicity which can occur in various age groups. [3]

Question Number : 5

- a) Delayed sequence intubation. [4]
- b) Balanced resuscitation in trauma cases. [3]
- c) Damage control surgery in trauma cases. [3]