

National Board of Examinations

DNB General Surgery Paper4

Question Number : 3

- a) What are the causes of bilateral hydronephrosis? [4]
- b) A young male presented with oliguria, pain in both renal angle without any fever. On imaging, 13 mm right lower ureteric stone and 15 mm left ureteric stone and bilateral gross hydronephrosis, with S. Creatinine 4.5 mg/dL. How will you manage him? [6]

Question Number : 4

Enumerate indications and contraindications of liver transplant and write a note on extended donor criteria for liver transplant. [3+3+4]